

Sherry Khanzadeh joins Team Thomas

Thomas Concrete Group recruits new CFO from Stampen Media

Gothenburg, November 18, 2019

Sherry Khanzadeh will take up the role as CFO of Thomas Concrete Group in spring of 2020. Sherry will be a member of the executive management team and her placement will be at the Headquarters in Gothenburg, Sweden.

Sherry Khanzadeh comes from Stampen Media, one of Sweden's largest media groups and owner to among others the Gothenburg Post. She has worked as the Group's CFO at Stampen Media since 2016. Sherry Khanzadeh holds a Master's degree in Economics from the Gothenburg University and has for 19 years held leading positions in several different industries in business administration and finance but also IT and purchasing, mainly in the energy and food industries as well as media.

Sherry Khanzadeh succeeds Per Bergbrant, who after 19 years in the company will leave Thomas Concrete Group to retire during 2020.

"I am very pleased that Sherry has chosen to be part of Team Thomas and I am really looking forward to working together. With her personality, broad experience and solid expertise from different industries, Sherry will be a valuable person in our company's continuous positive development. At the same time, I would like to take this opportunity to extend a big gratitude to Per Bergbrant, who for many years has been a key person in our company's strong development," says Hans Karlander, President and CEO Thomas Concrete Group AB.

Thomas Concrete Group is on an inspiring journey in developing the company for the future. The company focuses on becoming even better at customer service as well as building a stronger group and an even stronger team. The group is growing and has since 2014 acquired some 40 plants in both the USA, Germany, Poland and Sweden. Earlier this year the Group acquired a larger raw material operation in Germany in order to secure a safer and more sustainable supply of raw materials for the future and to contribute to even higher customer service.
